Unwrapped: A Gift, A Dream

September 18, 2023

Dear Diary,

Today was an exciting day. There was a package that Aunt Mina sent. When I opened it, there was an elegant set of chopsticks and forks. It's a simple gift but deeply meaningful because I love enjoying both Western and Eastern foods. Aunt Mina always knows how to touch my heart.

A rush of inspiration hit me as I held these gifts. Now, I am thinking about the idea of making fusion desserts because my dream is to be a patisier. I've decided to go for it. I'm going to research and experiment with dessert recipes that use techniques and bring flavors of both Eastern and Western. Imagine an orange ginger Yakgwa, and Matcha chocolate rice cake!

This decision feels like a step towards making my dreams come true, and I couldn't be more thrilled. I'm even thinking of taking a course that specializes in fusion pastry techniques. The excitement is overwhelming, but I am going to make it. It's amazing how one meaningful gift can pave the way for new beginnings and exciting opportunities.

DEBATE TITLE: Dotty's Discovery at Greenleaf

- Topic:

- Community Unity and Collaboration: communities that work together can overcome obstacles.
- Taking Initiative: seeking solutions and being resourceful can lead to positive change.
- Value of Resource Conservation: seeking solutions and being resourceful can lead to positive change.
- Education and Legacy: importance of passing down knowledge, values, and history to future generations.

- Discussion question:

1. Introduction: Describe a community you belong to. It could be your school, neighborhood, club, or any group you feel a part of.
2. Identify a Problem: Recall the story of Dotty and how she noticed a problem in Greenleaf when the river's water became impure. Think about a challenge or problem your community is facing. Describe this problem in detail.
3. Possible Solutions: Brainstorm at least three different solutions to the problem. Think of how each solution might help, what challenges might come up, and how your community might react.
