READING SECTION:

Color of Kindness

Want to do something different? Join the Color Run! The Color Run is a 5 km run. It looks like Holi, India's festival of colors. You start the race in white clothes. Volunteers throw color powder at runners. By the end of the race, you'll be covered in different colors! The event began in March, 2011. It promotes health and happiness. It's different from other races. Runners finish in their own time. So, there are no winners. It raises money for charity, too. Runners pay to enter the race. The money can help sick children or poor people. There are Color Runs in many countries. Anyone can run. Bring family and friends! Hope to see you there!
